

RECEIVE DIPLOMAS . . . Having satisfactorily completed a high school course in piano, Misses Margaret Ann Vonderahe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Vonderahe, and Shirley Hastings, of Los Angeles, were awarded diplomas in music. Graduates of St. Mary's Academy, Los Angeles, the girls were presented in private duo piano recital in the school auditorium before 400. The graduates earlier this season played a duo piano program for Torrance Woman's Club. (Bob Roberts photo).

Seaside Ranchos

By BETTY LOU SPARKS

Something new has been added. We've heard of bottles, flowers and cakes for christening, but today a big bird held the spotlight. A big turkey, barbecued to a delicious brown, Monday helped 28 guests christen the Frank Hanovers' new patio and barbecue. Those present included Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Hurst, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fish, Miss Mary Jane Letzinger, Mrs. Betty Watters, Denver, Colo., Mr. Bob Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Denney, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Miller, Mrs. Mary Conover, Dr. Alan Longshore, Berkeley, Mr. and Mrs. James Hall, Mr. and Mrs. William Schmitz, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Doyle and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harmon.

A surprise birthday party was given by Mrs. C. S. Ford of Seaside Heights for her husband Clifton on June 28 at the Santa Monica home of his sister, Mrs. Bailey. Attending also were his sister and brother-in-law from Seaside Heights, Mr. and Mrs. R. Phillips.

A reunion of friends who flew together over the Alaskan highway was arranged early last month when Don Hall of Seaside Ranchos went to Yellowstone National Forest. There he met his former flight partners, "Woody" Bartlett, Yellowstone, and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Pilling, Denver. A fine vacation, sight-seeing, and fishing, were enjoyed.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Harris of Seaside Ranchos for a few weeks is their daughter Mrs. Betty Watters and tiny granddaughter Susan of Denver, Colo. William Watters will join them here next week.

Meeting old friends too, are Denny Hall and Tommy Schooley, who spent this past week at the YMCA Camp at Little Green Valley.

Five Seaside Girl Scouts recently passed their Red Cross swimming tests. They were Martha Gruber, Dale Denham, Donna Hatfield, Shirley Parrish and Patricia Merola.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Shockey last week were Mr. and Mrs. W. Bond and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Crawford Indianapolis, Indiana. Points of interest in Los Angeles were visited.

Enjoying a cruise during the Fourth holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Spelman. They cruised the vicinity of Catalina. Upon their return they entertained Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Hubbard, Arcadia, Mrs. Hubbard, Arcadia, Mrs. Spelman's brother and sister-in-law.

Recently-elected head of the Mr. and Mrs. Club of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church of Torrance is Jim Shidler. The club meets once a month and is open to all interested in a group of young married couples who combine their religious activities with social evenings. Next meeting for the group will be at Jim's home in Seaside July 10 with a shrimp dinner prepared by Jim as the main event.
